

The Wine Cabinet

Reds that "Drink Up"!

2021

Chateau Ste. Michelle Limited Release Red Blend

The nose begins with Bing cherry and just a touch of vanilla crème. On the palate the darker fruits interplay with a hint of spearmint and tea with a full, yet soft finish. Crafted to be interesting and complex enough to fit into our family of red wines while still making its own elegant statement.

Blend: 48% Cabernet Sauvignon, 44% Merlot, 8% Syrah

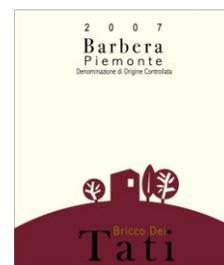

Leo Hillinger Small Hill Red Blend 2017 Jois, Austria

This fabulous wine from one of the leading wineries in Austria adapts perfectly to every dish. It is a blend of 50% Merlot, 25% Pinot Noir, and 25% St. Laurent. It is full-bodied and harmonious on the palate.

Bricco Dei Tati Barbera

This wine has a fresh cherry flavor with a nice, smooth finish. Made to drink right away or within the next year or two!

Food Pairings: Delightfully approachable, it is great with medium to strong cheeses, pasta, chicken and barbecue.

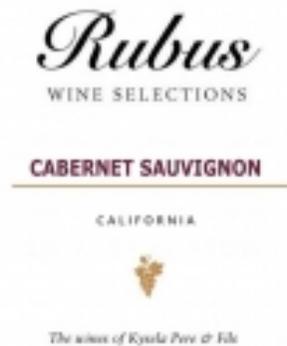

Edmeades 2016 Zinfandel (Mendocino County)

Tight, concentrated aromas of black fig and dark chocolate meet beefy, earthy and ripe berry flavors in this high-powered, concentrated wine. It has a full body and firm tannins that give it a powerful structure, with nice depth and a lingering chocolate and cherry finish.

Rubus Cabernet Sauvignon, 2017 California

This medium-bodied wine has a flashy, candied, buttery aroma, good fresh red- and black-cherry flavors and light tannins that don't get in the way of a smooth texture.

Castelvecchio Piemonte Rosso 2017 Nebbiolo, Dolcetto and Barbera

Of intense ruby color with violet reflections, it presents fruity and floral aromas, of violet and primrose. A big yet smooth red , very harmonious and captivating.

www.thewinecabinet.com